

Rev. Dr. Osuji Gregory Ekene, FMS belongs to the Religious Congregation of the Marist Brothers of the Schools (Catholic Mission), Province of Nigeria. He is a Lecturer in the Department of Education at Marist International University College; a Constituent College of the Catholic University of Eastern Africa, Nairobi, Kenya. He holds a BA/Ed in Religious Studies & Geography (Marist International Centre; the Catholic University of Eastern Africa, Nairobi, Kenya), M.Ed in Curriculum Studies (Imo State University, Owerri, Nigeria), and PhD in Curriculum Studies and Instruction (The Catholic University of Eastern Africa, Nairobi, Kenya). Br. Ekene has done many empirical studies with Dr. Suleh, including Appraisal of Marist Education in the Light of Patristic Education, Influence of Terrorism on the Vocation and Ministry of Priests and Religious in Jos Catholic Ecclesiastical Province of Nigeria, and Role of Institutions of Higher Learning in Enhancing Sustainable Development in Nairobi, Kenya. He has also co-authored a book with Dr. Suleh: Multilingualism and its Contribution to Sustainable Socio-Economic Development. He is a seasoned teacher and youth minister. His research interests include: Youth empowerment and education, character formation and sustainable development.

Dr. Everlyn Achieng' Oluoch-Suleh is a Lecturer and Head of Department of Education at Marist International University College (MIUC); a Constituent College of the Catholic University of Eastern Africa. She holds a PhD in African Languages from the University of South Africa, MA (Linguistics) from the University of Nairobi, B.Ed (Linguistics/Literature) from the University of Nairobi and a Diploma in Education from Siriba Teachers' College, Maseno, Kenya. Before her current position, Dr. Suleh taught in several high schools in Kenya. Due to her interest in English language teaching and learning, she did a Trinity Dip TESOL Level 7 Diploma in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages – United Kingdom (UK), a (TESOL) certificate – UK, and has Associateship to the College of Teachers (ACoT), UK. Dr. Suleh is currently pursuing an MA in Intercultural Communication at the University of Stellenbosch, South Africa. Dr. Suleh's research interests include: Theoretical linguistics, African languages, teaching of English as a second language, intercultural communication, multilingualism, education and sustainable development.

Published by CUEA PRESS
The Catholic University of Eastern Africa
P. O. Box 62157 - 00200, Nairobi - Kenya
E-mail: publications@cuea.edu

CURRICULUM AND SUSTAINABLE LEARNING

CURRICULUM and Sustainable Learning

Vade Mecum for Teacher Education

Osuji Gregory Ekene, FMS
Everlyn A. Oluoch-Suleh

*Osuji Gregory Ekene, FMS
Everlyn A. Oluoch-Suleh*

CUEA PRESS